Vinyl!

Das kleine aber absolut feine Label Rollercoaster sollte allen Rockabilly Cats durch die hervorragenden CD- und Single Veröffentlichungen der letzten Jahre bestens bekannt sein. Wir beginnen mit der ersten Veröffentlichung des englischen Labels von 1978, die glücklicherweise immer noch erhältlich ist.

VARIOUS ARTISTS

Rockaphilly - Philadelphia Rock'n'Roll

ROLL 2001 EURO 12.90

Dieser Sampler ist vollgestopft mit Rockabilly Tracks der damals in Philadelphia beheimateten kleinen Label Arcade, Arzee und Skyrocket. Diese Label verfügten über einen beträchtlichen Haufen hervorragender Rocker, was dieser Sampler eindeutig beweist. Hier wird gerockt, und zwar vom ersten Stück an, die Zusammenstellung verliert nie an Spannung und es gibt jede Menge zu entdecken - wie zum Beispiel die Kingsmen, die jedem unter dem Namen Comets bekannt sein dürften, denn Jack Howard vom Arcade Label arbeitete an der jungen Karriere von Bill Haley als Verleger und Promotionman kräftig mit und da die Comets oft an Aufnahmesessions für Arcade beteiligt waren, ist es auch kein Wunder, dass über Teilen dieser Zusammenstellung der Geist des Haley Sounds zu schweben scheint.

The Return Of Rockaphilly - More Philadelphia Rock'n'Roll

ROLL 2004 EURO 12.90

1980 wurden die Archive des Arcade Labels dann nochmals geöffnet und aus dem Fundus, den Jack Howard Anfang der frühen 50s aufgrund eines lokalen Verlangens nach Hillbilly, Novelty und Rock'n'Roll Material gefüllt hat, bedient sich nochmals das Label Rollercoaster. Vollkommen zu Recht, denn es werden wieder wahre Perlen aus der Dunkelheit ans Licht gefördert. The Return of Rockaphilly überzeugt wieder auf der ganzen Linie. Es macht einfach einen unglaublichen Spaß, sich durch diese grandiose Ansammlung von 20 Tracks zu hören. Das Ganze ist eine perfekte Soundzeitreise an die Ostküste, mitten rein in die regionale Musikszene der 50s in Philadelphia, die für viele beliebt Neuland sein dürfte, aber das muss ja dank Rollercoaster nicht so bleiben.

Die gesamte Interpreten- und Titel- auflistung findet ihr wie immer in der entsprechenden Rubrik im Katalog.

Bill Haley Hillbilly Haley

ROLL 2007 EURO 12.90

Wir werden in eine Zeit entführt, in der der erste Star des Rock'n'Roll noch seiner ersten musikalischen Liebe, der Country Music, seinen Tribut zollte. Hillbilly Haley ist eine Werkschau seiner ganz frühen Arbeiten und eine Reminiszenz Haleys an seine persönlichen Favoriten wie Hank Williams, Jimmy Rodgers, den Sons Of The Pioneers und dem Western Swing eines Spade Cooley. Es wird deutlich, wie wichtig diese Urgesteine der Hillbilly-, Western- und Oldtime- musik für die Entwicklung Bill Haleys und den Rock'n'Roll waren. Es ist eine wahre Freude, dieses Album von 1984 mit 21 Hillbilly Aufnahmen (einige davon zuvor unveröffentlicht) aus den Jahren 1948-51 mit den Four Aces Of Western Swing, den Saddlemen und von 1959-60 mit den Comets zu hören. Es wird ein verständliches Bild von dem Countrymusiker Bill Haley gezeichnet, und jeder, der nur seine Rock'n'Roll Aufnahmen kennt, wird von seinem Talent in diesem Genre überrascht sein. Der Sammler wird an dieser Schatztruhe nicht vorbeikommen, denn es handelt sich um wirklich äußerst rare Aufnahmen.

Gene Vincent & His Blue Caps

Hey Mama

ROLL 2021 EURO 12.90

Auf dieser äußerst geschmackvoll gestalteten 10inch finden wir eine Auswahl von insgesamt 11 Rohdiamanten aus den letzten Tagen von Gene Vincent und seinen original Blue Caps. Es handelt sich um Demos und Live-aufnahmen der Jahre 1957 und 1958, aufgenommen in Dallas. Gene war mit Sicherheit eine der schillerndsten, einflussreichsten und bedeutendsten Persönlichkeiten des Rock'n'Roll, was eine bis heute immer noch ständig wachsende Fangemeinde beweist. Die erste Seite dieser 10inch hat einen sehr intimen Charakter, da es sich zum Teil um langsamere Songs wie zum Beispiel Lonesome Boy und In My Dreams handelt. Sämtliche Titel wurden erst 1998 entdeckt, genauso wie Hey Mama, dem ersten Song der zweiten Seite. Was dann folgt, ist ein echter Leckerbissen: Blue Jean Bop eröffnet den Reigen von 4 rockenden Songs, mitgeschnitten live on Stage at "The Big D Jamboree" in Dallas - was nicht nur die Fans dieses wirklich außergewöhnlichen Boppers in die gleichen Begeisterungsstürme versetzen wird wie das damalige fast außer Kontrolle geratene, kreischende Publikum im Big D. Let's Bop and never Stop.

Vinyl!

The small but pretty busy Rollercoaster Records label isn't only known to the Rock'n'Roll and Rockabilly Cats because of their fabulous CDs, they also released a bunch of real good stuff on vinyl and we start with their first production from 1978 which for heavens sake is still available.

Rockaphilly - Philadelphia Rock'n'Roll

ROLL 2001 EUR 12.90

This compilation is fully packed with Rockabilly and Rock'n'Roll tracks which were recorded for the small Philadelphia labels Arcade, Arzee and Skyrocket and these companies had a tremendous output of Rockers. Artists like the Kingsmen (better known under the name of Bill Haley's Comets) recorded at Arcade because Jack Howard the labelmanager took a big part at the raising of Haley's career as a publisher and promoter. These two facts are the reasons why a big part of the Arcade output was pretty much Halesound influenced.

The Return Of Rockaphilly - More Philadelphia Rock'n'Roll

ROLL 2004 EUR 12.90

In 1980 the Rollercoaster company opened the archives of the Arcade labels again to get more 50s Hillbilly, Novelty and Rock'n'Roll material for a second Philadelphia Rock'n'Roll compilation. The Return Of Rockabilly rocks from the beginning to the end and the 20 tracks give you a great impression of the Philadelphia music scene of the 1950s.

Bill Haley Hillbilly Haley

ROLL 2007 EUR 12.90

This release contains the Country recordings of this number one Rock'n'Roll Star. Hillbilly Haley includes his early recordings and is a reminiscence to his first love - the Country Music and his personal favourites like Hank Williams, Jimmie Rodgers, The Sons Of The Pioneers and the Western Swing artist Spade Cooley. The compilation shows how important these artists were for Haley's own musical development and finally the development of Rock'n'Roll. Hillbilly Haley from 1984 includes 21 rare Hillbilly recordings (some previously unreleased material) from the years 1948-51 with the Four Aces Of Western Swing, the Saddlemen and from 1959-60 with the Comets. For all of you who are only familiar with Haley's Rock'n'Roll recordings this compilation will be a positive surprise!

Gene Vincent & his Blue Caps

Hey Mama

ROLL 2021 EURO 12.90

This brilliant 10" release is a selection of 11 tracks from the last days of Gene Vincent with the Original Blue Caps. The album contains Demos and Live tracks from 1957-58, all recorded in Dallas, Texas. Gene was one of the most important artists of the Rock'n'Roll Era still getting more and more fans, even though he is already gone from us. Side A of this record contains more slow songs like Lonesome Boy and In My Dreams. Side B includes more rockin' stuff like Hey Mama and Blue Jean Bop which is a Live-cut from "The Big D Jamboree" in Dallas showing the wild and out of control going audience. So, let's bop and never stop!

*Rustic Stomp, nennen die Japaner diese Mischung aus Cowpunk, Irish-Folk & Psychobilly und es gibt dort einen völlig
