*Although legendary now, it's important to remember that Senior Soul were extremely popular in their native Los Angeles back in 1968 and 1969, packing the clubs and even managing a Hot 100 entry with their debut single, an infectious vibes and flute-filled take of Miriam Makeba's 'Pata Pata'. This 20-track compilation assembles the Senior's heaviest, most dancefloor friendly LP cuts, adding the two 1970 single sides ('Don't Lay Your Funky Trip On Me' and 'I Ain't Got No Soul Today') that feature the first recorded appearance of the line-up that would vault, one of which, 'The Sneak', is as groovy as anything Senior Soul ever released.
