- The very best of Ronnie's exquisite ballads for ROULETTE, HAWK, COTILLION, MONUMENT and QUALITY.
- A career-spanning compilation which includes the John Lennon-endorsed Down In The Alley - a US chart entry - and Canadian best-sellers like Bluebirds Over The Mountain and (Stuck In) Lodi.
- Surprisingly sensitive singing from the wild man of rock'n'roll. This is why Elvis listened to the performer they still call 'Mr Dynamo'.
- Brilliant interpretations of heartbreaking songs from America's greatest tunesmiths including Hank Williams, Tim Hardin and Bob Dylan.
- The very best back up musicians with appearances by Levon Helm, Hank Garland, Duck Dunn and slide guitar maestro Duane Allman.

INFORMATION

Ronnie Hawkins's superlative rockabilly and rock'n'roll tracks are already available on 'Ronnie Hawkins Rocks' (BCD 16873), an absolute must-have for all rock'n'roll fans and anyone else who might wonder where The Band learned their trade. In short, the man is a demigod to hard core greasers.

This set, however, is distinguished by Hawkins's warm, fluid and sensual singing on wonderful songs by America's greatest songwriters including Hank Williams, Kris Kristofferson, Jesse Winchester, Tim Hardin and Bob Dylan.

It's not what Hawkins is famous for but you'll be moved by his flair for carrying slower melodies of unparalleled beauty and his graceful mastery of melancholic and highly evocative songs. One More Night wrote 'Rolling Stone' "is shockingly good. Hawkins's voice slides over the lyrics like liquid over glass. His taste and timing are impeccable. The definition of finesse".

One More Night is here, along with another 29 examples of country, folk and blues ballads at their underrated best.
