SALES NOTES

Bear Family Records is proud to present the most eagerly awaited entry in its series of Studio Outtakes releases that includes the Everly Brothers and Janis Martin.

Johnny Cash is an American legend. Until now, alternate takes of his Sun recordings have appeared scattered on numerous sources, unsystematically issued all over the world. Acknowledging the importance of alternative versions of his iconic Sun recordings, Bear Family has issued for the first time a collection of every Johnny Cash alternate take known to exist in the Sun archives.

These recordings, many of which have never been previously released, offer the deepest insight yet into Johnny Cash's formative years at the Sun label. Collectors and fans will want to make side-by-side comparisons with the originally released versions of these songs. We have facilitated this by grouping alternate takes together and presenting them in chronological order according to most up-to-date research.

Whether it's the thrill of hearing a previously unknown lyric, a slightly different instrumental sound or eavesdropping on a vocal or guitar fluff, this collection offers the most penetrating look beyond the famous master recordings made by a man who has become a towering figure in American music.

The package includes a lavishly illustrated booklet containing rare and previously unpublished photos as well as original session notes.
