SALES NOTES

With this brand new release Bear Family honors the late Heidi Bruehl who died all too soon, and was one of the very few German singers of international class. She was an outstanding musical star and guested on Las Vegas stages, whereas in Germany she remained the 'Girl from Immenhof' (a role she played in her youth in a German movie). She never got the chance to prove her real abilities as an artist.

This CD proves that Heidi Bruehl's talent was always underestimated. The music runs the gamut from English versions of her 1961 Schlager smash Immer will ich Dir gehoeren to her 1963 Eurovision Song Contest entry Marcel, to American hits of the late 1960s. Furthermore there are top-notch compositions by writers such as Charles Aznavour, James Last and the team of Les Reed/Barry Mason.

One of the highlights on this CD is the psychedelic-tinged track Berlin, which was recorded in London, most likely with rock guitar legend Jimmy Page (of The Yardbirds and Led Zeppelin). A truly outstanding interpretation of an excellent song.

Heidi Bruehl, singing here in English, will never be forgotten. This CD is a true find, not only for her diehard fans but for all lovers of the popular song!
