SALES NOTES

Gene Vincent will always be remembered as the Screaming End - the tortured rock 'n' roll singer who rocked harder than anyone in the mid-1950s. What people tend to forget is that Gene had another side, a sweet high voice that lent itself well to ballad material. He grew up with country music and classic pop, and that background comes through on these rarely-heard recordings. From his first session in 1956 until one of his last in 1971, this collection showcases some of the best ballads Vincent ever recorded, from Important Words to Over The Rainbow and The Night Is So Lonely and many more. When the right mood hits you, this collection will send chills down your spine, so enjoy this other side of Gene Vincent!
