- The liner notes are written by award winning journalist Colin Escott.

SALES NOTES

4 Star Records started in 1945 and was still going strong in the rockabilly era. Several all-time bona-fide rockabilly classics made their first appearance on the label... like Sammy Masters' Pink Cadillac and Carl Belew's 24 Hour Night. And we catch some old-time country guys trying to get with it, like T. Texas Tyler's Shake 'Em Up Rock. 4 Star also gave birth to some early rockabilly like Arkie Shibley's Hot Rod Race and the Maddox Bros. & Rose's New Step It Up And Go. It's all here. Thirty fabulous tracks where the bop never stops. As usual, there's incredible sound quality, fanatically detailed liner notes, and rare photos.

After fifteen years, we're still reissuing the very finest in rockabilly. At this rate, the very last CD ever issued on planet earth might be another That'll Flat Git It volume! Got one... gotta have them all!
