INFORMATION

SAGE & SAND RECORDS operated from an upstairs office on Hollywood Boulevard near CAPITOL RECORDS, but only scored one hit in the fifteen years it was in existence. SAGE & SAND recorded an eclectic mix of hillbilly, western, and rockabilly, and the best of the uptempo country recordings are here (the best of the rockabilly recordings are on our companion volume, 'That'll Flat Git It', SAGE & SAND, BCD 16838).

This is the sort of collection that sets collectors' hearts racing: songs they've never heard-of together with records they could never afford in one generously full package... plus all the stories and photos you'd ever want! What about Lonnie Barron, who called himself the Elvis of Muttonville, and who was shot by a jealous husband just as his newest SAGE & SAND record was becoming a hit. And what about Al Muniz who recorded half-a-dozen incredible singles for SAGE & SAND before leaving music to work with the poor in central America? They're all here alongside oddballs like Jenks Tex Carman, and wild men like Gene Vincent's former road manager, Whitey Pullen. Incredible stories, incredible music, incredibly restored and packaged... just like you'd expect from BEAR FAMILY.
