INFORMATION

Billy Riley is one of the unsung heroes of rockabilly. To many collectors, Riley's six SUN singles, issued between 1956 and 1959, guarantee him charter membership in rockabilly heaven. Forget the fact that Riley never had a national hit record. Songs like Red Hot and Flying Saucer Rock And Roll enshrine Riley as one of the founding fathers of rock'n'roll. That assessment is shared by record collectors, historians and Bob Dylan, who paid public tribute to Billy Riley and performed with him in 1992.

This unprecedented boxed set brings together virtually every Billy Riley outtake of the 12 sides originally released by the SUN label in the 1950s. It offers the deepest look yet at Billy Riley's recording activity in the historic Memphis studio. Taken together, this set and BEAR FAMILY's 2-CD release of 'Classic Billy Riley' offer the most complete look at Billy Riley at SUN RECORDS ever to be released.

This boxed set also includes a lavishly illustrated booklet featuring never-before seen photos of Riley at work in the studio and on tour with his backup group, the Little Green Men. It also includes a revised and expanded SUN discography, detailed track-by-track commentaries, and new interview material by SUN historian Hank Davis. Its 78 tracks include revealing studio chatter and offer a deep, behind-the-scenes look at life in the SUN studio. This is a set that no fan of Billy Riley or vintage SUN RECORDS can be without.
