- 'Hoy Hoy' indeed! This record really rocks – 22 tracks recorded by an important but little-reissued Oklahoma-born singer from the classic era of rock'n'roll!
- Here are all 12 tracks issued on six singles on the CANDLELIGHT, BULLSEYE, and LEN record labels between 1957 and 1961!
- Also another 10 vocal and instrumental tracks not originally issued – and with Big Al Downing on piano!
- When Clyde's So Young/Hoy Hoy hit #68 in June 1957 it was the first Hot 100 entry by an artist based in the Lubbock area of Texas – beating Clyde's high school mate Buddy Holly by six months!
- Relocating to Pennsylvania in 1958, Clyde recorded in New York and registered Top 30 hits in Canada with So Young, Baby Shame and Nobody's Darling!
- Clyde's TV appearances included 'Bandstand' and 'The Patti Page Show'!
- The 28-page booklet by Wayne Russell expertly tells Clyde's story from Oklahoma to Lubbock, to Scranton and back home. It contains rare photographs and interviews with Clyde Stacy!
- Now, Clyde is scheduled to make his European debut at the Hemsby Rock'n'Roll Weekender in May 2011, and plans to 'warm-up' at the Las Vegas Rockabilly Weekend in April. Clyde Stacy is back!

INFORMATION

This CD is the first comprehensive look at the career of Clyde Stacy, a man who grew up in Tulsa, went to school in Lubbock with Buddy Holly, had a hit with a rocking version of the R&B song Hoy Hoy, moved to Scranton, appeared on 'Bandstand' and other TV shows, recorded in New York with top session men, saw many hits in Canada, and is still working country, blues, and rockabilly venues. His part in the story of rock'n'roll has been little-known but is told here in words, pictures, and rocking music.
