INFORMATION

In a recording career which began in 1964 and spanned seven hectic years, Herman's Hermits registered more than 30 worldwide chart entries. Led by vocalist, Peter Noone, they became one of the most consistently successful artists of the beat music revolution. Although hugely popular in the U.S., U.K., Germany, Holland, Australia, Japan and the Philippines, their legacy has never been fully documented until now.

This compilation produced and compiled by respected Grammy nominated producer Ron Furmanek gathers together more than 60 of their classic recordings, alongside demos, first time true stereo mixes and session ephemera making this a one-of-a-kind audio anthology.

Among the highlights are I'm Into Something Good, Mrs. Brown You've Got A Lovely Daughter, Can't You Hear My Heartbeat, Wonderful World, Just A Little Bit Better, Listen People, A Must To Avoid, Hold On!, Leaning On A Lamp Post, This Door Swings Both Ways, Dandy, No Milk Today, East-West, There's A Kind Of Hush, Museum, I Can Take Or Leave Your Loving, Sleepy Joe, Sunshine Girl, My Sentimental Friend and Something's Happening.

Presented in a digipac format, this collection features all the usual high standard BEAR FAMILY trademarks; a 140-page booklet with new interviews, and liner notes by respected historian Andrew Sandoval, abundant photographs, biographical information and a discography of the tracks included.
