BEAR FAMILY RECORDS

INFO:

- The first CD compilation with tunes from the fifties and early sixties around the theme 'Birthday'.
- A great birthday gift, because everybody has birthday, and that every year anew!
- The CD album on Bear Family Records® comes with a 'birthday sticker' on which you can inscribe the name of the birthday child.
- Besides classics by the Tune Weavers, Neal Sedaka or Paul Anka, 'Happy Birthday, Baby! - 32 (Un-) Happy Tunes For Your Birthday Party' delivers some rarities like Tino's Got The Birthday Blues Again, Barry Mann's Happy Birthday Broken Heart and the German version Happy Birthday, Josefin (Happy Birthday Sweet Sixteen) by the Key Brothers.
- Seven songs on CD for the first time!
- Detailed liner notes by Bill Dahl.

Everyone knows the simple words and melody to Happy Birthday. But there are a great many other musical methods of conveying sincere natal day wishes. A bounty of them comprise Bear Family Records® 'Happy Birthday, Baby! - 32 (Un-) Happy Tunes For Your Birthday Party' guaranteed to make any celebration more fun. Neil Sedaka's Happy Birthday, Sweet Sixteen is a must, as are Johnny Crawford's Cindy's Birthday and The Tuneweavers' Happy, Happy Birthday Baby - but no more so than the late Jerry Lee Lewis' gloriously salacious Birthday Cake (Keep Your Hands Off Of It) or Lesley Gore's heartbroken It's My Party. R&B greats Louis Jordan, Sil Austin, and Claudine Clark chime in with rollicking greetings, as do rockabilly warriors Steve Carl, Wanda Jackson, and Glenn Barber. There's a teen element here too, courtesy of Paul Anka, Kathy Young & The Innocents, and The Pixies Three; pop wailer Johnnie Ray checks in with When's Your Birthday, Baby.

The next time your birthday rolls around, just pop this collection into your CD machine and push 'play'- it's an instant party!
