Summer ahead! Join us on a trip through tropical and sunny climes and spice up your drab, gray, everyday life with some hot tunes chosen from Cree Record's back catalog.

During the last five years Cree Records has released a variety of music from the tropical region. Whether it's Afro-Boogie from Ghana or Folk-Jazz from Trinidad, this compilation proves the tropics have much more to offer than is usually assumed.

Wajang Woman by Embryo (here served as Frankie Francis Sofrito Edit), Barbara Hernandez' All Nite Tonight and Michael Boothman's Tabu or Can't Stop Dancing: most of the tracks on this album are already established dancefloor fillers.

But there is much more to discover this year like the latin infused track Trinidad by Papa Music, taken from the upcoming compilation 'Gotta Nice Buzz - The Funky Side of Sound Studios Trinidad' or Merchant's funky Soca Rub-A-Dub Soka taken from a collection of music by Trinidad's Network Riddum Band. Exclusively for this compilation Berlin's DJ Nomad put his hands on Leston Paul's super rare tune Caribbean Jam and gives it an exciting re-edit.

Nuff said! And remember dancing is the best way to get rid of your 'winterspeck'. 'Cause summer is right ahead!
